Another fashionable and appreciative audience greeted this admirable artists at the Memphis Theater last night. The many beauties of the play, and Mile, Rhea's exquisite interpretation of the leading role have heretofore been fully dwelt upon in these columns, and need not be ferred to again. To-night and to-morrow night Augustin Daly's latest New York success will be given, with Mile. Rhea in the role of "Peggy Thrit." It is a delightful comedy in three acts, written by Wm. Wycherly, an English dramatist of the Nine-I on'y weighed 128 pounds when I com-menced Guinn's Pion er, and now weigh 147 pounds. Crosby's Dime Museum

In announcing Prof. Wallace, "the man-fish," Mr. Crosby requested one of the audience to step up on the platform to see that there was no hoax or "fake" in the submarine performance, as it had been intimated by some smart "know-it-all" that such was the case. The amphibians have proved great attractions, and every perform-ance has been crowded. Yesterday alternoon a gentleman who had won the prize for swimming at the last athletic tourney in this city, timed Wallace in his submarine eleeping act and found it to be three minutes and a half, which is wonderful, especially when one considers that he does this every hour from 1 to 5 o'clock p.m., and from 7 to 10 o'clock. Idaletta, "the water queen," seems not less of an amphibian than her partner, and the leats of both are very interesting. In the upper balls Demon'o" costinues to lunch off of flaming jute, take mouthfuls of molten lea1 and boiling oil, and concludes his salamandrine acts by a vigorous dance on a red-hot iron plate. "Dr." Ah Foon has always something new in his sleight-of-hand repertory to offer to his audiences. The entire act is amusing, but his verbal descriptions are the funniest part of it. The tun-ing up of the fiddle with two strings occupies as much t'me as the popular Chinese melody which the musician thereafter plays. No one has so far succeeded in catching the words of the song. "Quite-ee common song ev-ly body sing in Chinee stleet" (street), but everybody laughs while Ah Foon sings. Crosman, the Yankee whittler, is really very ingenious with his jackknife. In fifteen minutes he chips out a very pretty pair of scissors from pine and makes many other articles, such as ladies love to decorate with paint and hang with ribbons.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

HOW IT WILL BE CELEBRATED IN THE CITY.

The Various Irish Societies to Form in Procession- & Banquet and a Ball.

This, St. Patrick's day, will be more generally observed by the Irishmen of Memphis than for some years past. At St. Patrick's church there will be a special musical and religious service The various Irish societies will parade and at night there will be a banquet at the Gayoso and a ball at the Knights of Innisfail Hall. The programme as laid out by the committee Knights of Innisfail, Ancient Order Hibernians and Catholic Knights of America, Branches 28, 35 and 177 will meet at their halls promptly at 8 a, m. At 9 o'clock the procession, with Capt P. Hackett, Grand Marshal, and Messrs, Louis Kettman, John Lilly, James Reilly and Capt.Wm, Cunningham as assistants, will start from the hall of the Knights of Innisfail, corner of Second and Jefferson streets, and move as follows:

Up Second to Overton, west or Overton to Main, south on Main to Beale, east on Beale to DeSoto, and south on the latter street to St. Patrick's Church. Arriving there, the societies will enter the church, where the solemn high mass will be observed. After the gospel the panegyric of the saint will be preached by the Rev. T. J. Finn, a prilliant young priest of Natchez, At night a grand ball will be given at the Knights of Innistail Hall, the proceeds to go to the Irish National Land League. The committee having the matter in charge promise to make this the event of the season and to eclipse all former efforts.

St. PATRICK's DAY in the morning. THE ball to-night is sure to be a big MAJ. MAGEVENEY will preside at the banquet at the Gayoso to-night. The parade to-day will be the long est Memphis has had for some time. THE speaker of the day, the Rev Finn, is said to be a born orator. The shamrock will be worn by many a man to-day who would like to considered as entitled to wear it. An election is coming.

Mrs. J. J. Dorey will charm her listeners at 8t Patrick's to-day by "The Harp that Once Three Tara's Halls," a production for which her sweet voice is especially fitted.

CHRISTIAN WORK. Interesting Addresses Before the

very interesting and practical address on the work and mission of the Young Men's Christian Association at their hall last evening. He was followed with a few remarks on the work by Mr. T. A. Harding, general secretary at Washington, who is spending a few days here in the interest of the asso-ciation. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes furnished the music. After the meeting a male choir way organized, with twenty members, who secured Prot. Hughes for instructor. The class will meet for practice every Tuesday night, beginning March 30th, and will form a valuable addition to the association in furnishing good music at their meetings. The Western District Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of this State will be held at Dyersburg, Tenn., next Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Members and friends desiring to attend will please leave their names with R. G. Craig. 39 Union street. The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet this evening at 3 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms. All members are requested to be present and friends invited.

NOMINAL ASSETS $101,000, LIA-BILITIES FULLY AS GREAT.

About Half the Firm's Indebtedness Secured - The Immediate Cause of the Failure.

Though the failure of W. B. Galbreath & Co., which occurred yesterday, was not wholly unexpected, hopes had been entertained by their friends that they would be able to repair their losses and re-establish their credit on a firm and lasting basis To them the news that a deed of as-signment was filed came like a blow yesterday evening. The instrument, which named W. J. Crawford assignee, was rather vague in some respects, giving no schedule of creditors, though the assets were set out in full. The total amount of liabilities was put down at $73,000, and the assets at $101,000, which includes such interest as the firm has in 300 bales of cotton in the Navy-Yard compress shed, and the office fixtures, besides notes to the total amount of $23,491 27 among which the largest are those o D. E. Coleman, for $748 23; J. E. Mulford, $913 55; W. C. Pyles, $656 96; G. W. Davidson, $1758 48; Eldie Houston, $600; W. V. Chardavoyne, $1119 13; Pace & Lavendar, $4193 40; F. T. Johnson, $726 62; W. B. Cris-man, $1680 10; J. L. Eoperson, $630 60; N. H. Bradley, $642; L. E. Wright, $1240 90; B. D. Hodges, $1066 66, $1263 66, $1266 69. Other parties, whose notes they hold for smaller amounts, are B. Davidson, Posey & Gossett, C. L. Miller, Keeling & Mc-Bride, A. P. Matthews, J. E. & L. E. Pratt, F. L. Galbreath, J. H. Collins, T. J. Moody, Thomas J. Humphrey, R. R. Boyd, R. S. Skelton, H. B. Camp and McEwen & Hill. The following notes are held by E

E. Meacham as collateral security for the indorsement of two notes, one $3500 and one for $4000; Eldie Houston $600, J. E. and L. W. Pratt $261 20, J. H. Collins $360, R. S. Skelton $212 06, and B. D. Hodges $3509 98. Open accounts to the amount of $53,726 64 are scheduled. The remaining assets, all going to make the grand total of $101,47664, are noted as

W. C. Pyles's life insurance policy, held by E. E. Meacham as collateral security, $5000; M. Larkin's life insurance policy, $5000; C. Dickenson's life iosurance policy, $1250; O. B. Parker's life insurance policy, one-half interest, $3000; stock in Merchants' Cotton Press and Storage Company, same being hypothecated for loans, included in liabilities set forth, (see), $21,000: Gonder plantation, 1330 acres, $7500; Pope plantation, 480 acres, $5000; both being deeded to an indorser of the firm's paper for $7500 security, same being included in liabilities noted.

A glance at the figures given above will show that of the $73,000 due by the firm about $50,000 is secured, leaving $23,000 to be paid out of the general assets. Mr. E. E. Meacham, the heaviest creditor, is fully securad. He is indorser on a note for $7500 to the Upion and Pianters' Bank, which institution he also owes $6600, secured by $7000 of cotton compress stock.
The immediate cause of the failure was the protesting of a draft for $900, drawn by J. B. Phillips of Brownsville through an Essiern house upon the firm Phillips has been running a store at Brownsville for some time for Galbreath & Co., and lately his dra'ts have been coming in pretty fast. It said that the Mercantile Bank, which held the draft mentioned for co'lection, was allowed to protest it without a word from Mr. Galbreath, who realized that the end must come sooner or later, and resigned himself to the inevitable.

Mr. Galbreath, sr., has been mer-chandizing in Memphis for nearly thirty years, and when a younger man took a leading part in every public enterprise of note. When something was to be done to boom the city, to do honor to one of her distinguished cit zens or to welcome a visitor, his name always headed the list. He en-joyed an extensive and lucrative trade, and his word was good for thousands. Leaving the grocery business, where he was a member of the firm of Galbreath, Meacham and Fizer, he asso-ciated with him Messrs. W. J. Crawford, now president of the Cotton Exchange, and J. M. Fowikes, at present Posimater, and did an excellent commission business under the firm name of W. B. Galbreath & Co. Several years since Mr. Crawford withdrew and after-ward Mr. Fowlkes also retired. Not long since Mr. Galbreath took his son, S. M. Galbreath, in as a partner, but for some years the business of the firm has been slowly but steadily de-clining, in spite of all efforts to keep it going. Mr. Galbreath loses at the accumulation of years of carnest and intelligent labor, but he will make a strong effort to pay his debts dollar for dollar. Fortunately a home is left him, his wife having inherited from her father a farm in Middle Tennessee, worth about $15,000.

The Brownsville Failure. ISPECIAL TO THE APPRAL. Brownsville, Tenn., March 16.— The failure of W. B. Galbreath & Co. of Memphis caused J. B. Phillips, agent for W. B. Galbreath, trustee, to make an assignment to-day to W. J. Crawford, trustee; total liabilities are $22,869; total assets about $28,000. MR. JAMES CARDEN. Series of Lectures to Be Delivered by the Veteran Artist.

Mr. James Carden, who on March 5th was accorded such an enthusiastic reception by the Masons of Memphis, and whose lecture on the "Life and Works of St. Paul" made such a pro-found impression, is about to give a series of three lectures at the Bartist church on Tues'ay, Thursday and Friday, the 23d, 25th and 26th of this month, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. The subjects to be treated are "The Messiah," or as Mr. Carden named his lecture on this grand subject, King;" "St. Paul," under the title of "A Soldier of the Cross," and Alfred Tennyson, called by the lecturer "God and the Poet." This is an opportunity which seldom presents itself whereby students, not only of the Old and New Testament, but those interested in the history of past ages, can gather as much information, placed before them in the most enter-taining form and in glowing language, in the hour anda balf taken by the lecturer to deliver his stirring orations, as they could possibly, even if they were able to obtain access to the documents and authorities used by Mr. Carden in his careful research into the innermost depths of the subject under consideration, obtain in several months of arduous up-hill work. Then again, Mr. Carden in his discourse on Tenny-son will nelude the poet's masterpiece, Enoch Arden His delivery of this posm won, even from Tennyson himself, the warmest admiration. No lover of the great modern poet should loose this opportunity of baving Ten-nyson's inner life and consciousness, as shown in his works, interpreted for them by the light of Mr. Carden's genius, which is, in this case, a veritable "Aladdin's lamp." and leads the hearer into regions before unknown and unthought of. The secretary of the "Society for the Encourage-ment of the Fine Arts," Con-duct street, London, thus writes concerning this particular lecture: "Sir, I am suthorized by the commi tee to transmit to you, on the eve of your departure for the colonies, their acknowledgment of the very able manner in which you treated the sub-ject matter of the lectures delivered by you before the society. Your lec ture on Tennyson, in particular, meeting with great approbation." Bishop of Manchester, in one of his speeches in Exter Hall, London, on the subject of "Stage and Pulpit," referred to Mr. Carden as one of the instances of deep religious feeling and dramatic genius combined. The Bishop also stoke in terms of approbation of the work done by Mr. Carden in aid of Christian morality. It is hoped that the church will be crowded on the occasion of these lectures by all sges and both sexes, and no doubt it will be.
